ACS2Go

- Mobile optimized platform
- ACS2Go allows devices to be paired (up to four months) to provide seamless offsite/remote access

Figshare

- Importance of Supporting Information (SI)
- SI is already freely available on the ACS Publications site
- DOIs are assigned to SI
- Figshare-ACS Publications partnership supports open data discovery and use

Altmetrics

- What are the benefits of Altmetrics?
- Altmetrics Attention Scores are now available across all ACS Publications journals
- Altmetrics help provide a wider understanding of the impact of a work, beyond citation

The banner features a dark blue background on the left with white text, and a photograph of two smiling students on the right. The background is decorated with large, overlapping geometric shapes in blue, green, yellow, and purple. The text on the left reads: "Get Results. Get Published. Get Ahead." followed by "Bringing leaders in chemistry, publishing, research, science communication and career development to campuses around the world." The top navigation bar includes the ACS logo, "ACS Journals C&EN CAS", and a "JOIN ACS" button. The main navigation menu includes "ABOUT", "EVENTS", "RESOURCES", and "CONTACT US".

ChemRxiv™

The Open Preprint Server for Chemistry

<https://chemrxiv.org>

ChemRxiv

The Open Preprint Server for Chemistry

ChemRxiv helps complete a more comprehensive and transparent cycle of communication for chemists – conference presentations, preprints, published articles, secondary databases and search tools.

<http://www.chemrxiv.org>

ChemRxiv

The Preprint Server for Chemistry

- Partnership between ACS, RSC and German Chemical Society

What is a preprint?

A preprint is a freely accessible preliminary communication that contains new research findings and data not yet published in a peer-reviewed outlet, such as a journal.

A draft or final version may be submitted, so long as the preprint's content is not yet published at submission and all the authors consent to the posting.

<https://chemrxiv.org/>

ChemRxiv

The Preprint Server for Chemistry

Benefits:

- ✓ Enables researchers working across diverse areas of inquiry to share early results and data with their scientist colleagues before formal peer review and publication
- ✓ Gather informal feedback from other scientists to help in shaping their work
- ✓ Allow authors to advance the pace of scientific discovery and dissemination

ACS Hungary Chapter

Mission statement

- Promote the dissemination of chemistry and related fields to facilitate interfacing between the public and academia / industry.
- Provides forums to address challenges in chemistry and related fields.
- Utilize the experience and networks of the chapter members coming from industry, academia, and regulatory bodies.
