Open Access Partnerships

Are you eligible for a prepaid APC voucher?

Emerald works closely with libraries and national consortium bodies to support their goals and requirements for open access research output.

The following organizations have established partnerships with Emerald to cover the cost of an agreed number of Gold Open Access articles from their regions.

As an author, you may be eligible for a prepaid APC voucher. To assess your eligibility please see the list of current agreements below.

Austria (KEMO)

Emerald has partnered with the Austrian National Consortium (KEMO) to provide all institutions in Austria with an agreed number of gratis APC vouchers. Articles where the corresponding author is based at an Austrian institution are eligible. APC vouchers will be allocated at the point of article acceptance and based on a first come first served basis. To apply for an APC voucher please indicate your eligibility when you upload your article to ScholarOne Manuscripts.

Denmark (DEFF)

Emerald has partnered with the Danish National Consortium (DEFF) to provide participating Danish Universities with an agreed number of gratis APC vouchers. Articles where the corresponding author is based at a participating Danish University are eligible. For a full list of participating institutions please refer to the DEFF participating institutions list. Vouchers will be allocated at the point of article acceptance and based on a first come first served basis. To apply for an APC voucher please indicate your eligibility when you upload your article to ScholarOne Manuscripts.

The Netherlands (SURF)

Emerald has partnered with the Netherlands National Consortium (SURF) to provide participating Universities in the Netherlands with an agreed number of gratis APC vouchers. Articles where the corresponding author is based at a participating Dutch University are eligible. For a full list of participating institutions please refer to the SURF participating institutions list. Vouchers will be allocated at the point of article acceptance and based on a first come first served basis. To apply for an APC voucher please indicate your eligibility when you upload your article to ScholarOne Manuscripts.

GREEN OA

Our Green Open Access route offers all Emerald journal authors the option to make their research openly available, free from payment and embargo periods.

Green OA

- ▶ As soon as we've published an article, the version of the article that has been accepted for publication, the Author Accepted Manuscript (AAM) can be used for a variety of non-commercial scholarly purposes, subject to full attribution. An author may deposit and use their AAM (aka post-print) as follows:
 - ▶ on their personal website
 - ▶ on their company or institutional repository
 - ▶ on subject repositories
 - ▶ on Social Collaboration Networks (SCNs) that have signed up to the Voluntary STM Sharing Principles
 - ▶ with individuals requesting personal use
 - ▶ for teaching and training within the author's institution, and as part of an author's grant applications or theses/doctorate submissions.
 - ▶ Authors may post the version of the article that was submitted to the journal (pre-print) to the above resources, at any time.
 - ▶ Exceptions to this policy include:
 - ▶ the deposit into the repository of another institution
 - ▶ the systematic upload or collation of Emerald articles across repositories.

GOLD OA

If an author is required, by their funding body or institution, to make the branded Publisher PDF (also known as the "Version of Record") freely available immediately upon publication, the author has the option to publish their article via the Gold Open Access route, following payment of an Article Processing Charge.

GOLD OA

- ▶ The Gold Open Access route complies with the requirements made by funding bodies around the world, such as the RCUK or the Wellcome Trust, whereby mandates mean that the author must arrange for the research to be made openly accessible.
- ▶ Payment of an APC will guarantee the article is made open access upon the official date of publication. Articles published through the Gold Open Access route will be made open access under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 License, which permits unrestricted use, distribution and reproduction in any medium, providing that the original author and source are credited. This is fully compliant with current funder mandates.
- ▶ We offer the following options to authors wishing to publish via the Gold Open Access route:
